TO US, YOU'RE TOPS

We, the class of 1956, gratefully dedicate our yearbook to a man whose interest and warm sense of humor has made him a friend to us all. Through his time and effort as co-sponsor of our Junior class last year, our Junior year was a tremendous success. His willing spirit and friendly attitude are sincerely appreciated, and to the class of '56, Mr. Thomas M. Robinson, you are tops!

WE PAUSE... AND

RECALL OUR FACULTY

THE ADVISERS

MR. GEORGE J. McINTOSH

A person whom you are likely to see bustling about the halls at any time is our assistant principal, Mr. Keesee, who acts as a Dean of Boys and plays an important part in the work of the administration.

MISS ETHEL M. GILDERSLEEVE

Our principal, Mr. George J. McIntosh, who has added greatly to the dignity and prestige of the school, works hard at running the school in an orderly manner and seeing that the school program is carried out properly and efficiently.

MR. THOMAS O. KEESEE

Miss Ethel M. Gildersleeve, the Dean of Girls, guides the student body in all of their projects, helps with the administration work, and in her friendly and tactful manner assists the girls with their many problems.

GAVE ABLE SUPERVISION

Dr. R. O. Nelson, the Superintendent of Schools, is a very busy man with his many jobs connected with the supervision of the Newport News Public Schools. One of his responsibilities is to recommend new teachers to the School Board for appointment.

English OUR FACULTY

Left to right: Mrs. Vera Graves, Mrs. Jeannette Wright, Miss Lois Callahan, and Mrs. Marguerite Garvis informally review in the school library some books recommended for English literature.

*Best wishes

Dorothy Crane

PATIENTLY GUIDED US

THEY GREATLY ASSISTED US

WITH THEIR HELP

A new addition to our school are the seventh grade teachers who are, left to right, Mrs. Carlene Bass, Miss Eliza Wise, Mrs. Bessie McFall, Mrs. Virginia Baker, Mrs. Gertrude Sloop, and Mrs. Mary Forbes.

The guidance counselor, Miss Mildred M. Kelly, helps the students a great deal with her advice on school curricula and college information. She keeps the students informed on scholarships and helps them in general with their plans for the future.

Left to right: Miss Margaret Garland and Miss Elizabeth Saunders, our two efficient school librarians, keep the library up-to-date with new and interesting books.

AND FOR THEIR EFFORTS

Taking a break from their work are, left to right, Mrs. Jean Campbell, Mr. McIntosh's secretary; Mrs. Virginia Cash, office secretary; and Mrs. Sue Fleig, school book-keeper.

The school custodian, Bill Martin, is always doing his many jobs around the school in a friendly and congenial manner.

Mrs. Lucille Williams, the school nurse, takes care of all our aches and pains with her simple remedies and friendly smile.

Ending a hard week's work and completing next week's well-balanced menus is Mrs. Alice White, head of the Newport News High School cafeteria.

WE THANK THEM

Jerry Saunders, left, and Johnny Mitchell, right, candidates for the presidency of the student body, good-naturedly kid each other about the outcome of the spring election.

OUR CLASSROOM ANTICS

THE KNOWLEDGE WE GAINED HERE

One period of a D. O. student's day is spent in the classroom learning the fundamentals of a vocation which they can use after graduation, as is shown by Dillard Crickenberger and Mr. Bennett.

Tommy Leyland, a geography student, points out to Betty Castle the country they have just finished studying.

Preparing for that next big game, Sally Scogin is seen sewing an "N" on her cheerleading sweater in sewing class.

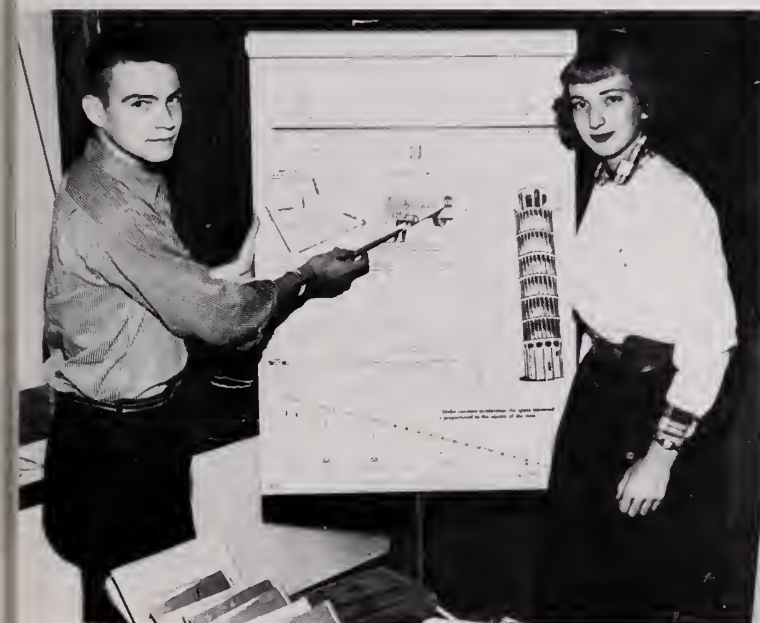

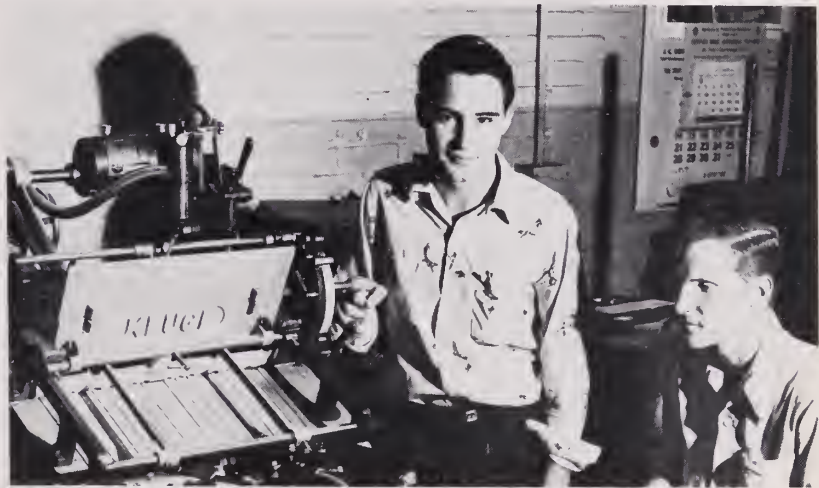

No, these girls haven't lost their minds! They are just trying out exercises to music in their gym class.

WILL PROVE INVALUABLE

Mary Catherine Todd and Donald Goldenbaum give their opinions after reading a poster exhibited in French class.

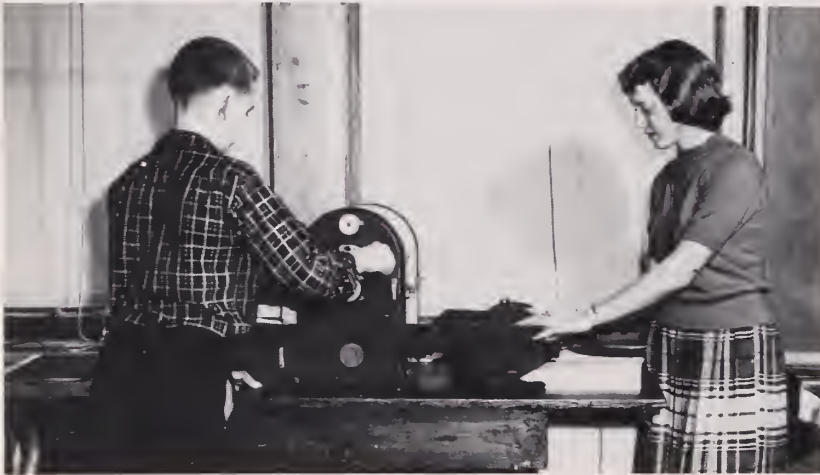

Willis Pressley, left, and Clenton Smith, right, are shown at the printing machine, preparing to run off tickets for a school play.

Physics student, Tom Hughes, explains the laws of non-parallel forces to classmate, Mary Ann Weaver.

OUR CLASSROOM FRIENDSHIPS WILL

"This is the shape of a triangle," Sally Macfarlane explains to Bill Saunders in solid geometry class.

R. D. Williams and Celia Coltrain learn how to operate a mimeograph machine in the new Office Practice class.

ENDURE THROUGH MANY YEARS

Jean Williams is taking dictation from a Soundsciber, one of the many machines used in the new Business Machines class.

Jane Hoffman, left, and Calmet Sawyer, right, are setting up the apparatus for a chemistry experiment. Chemistry students learn about the chemical changes in matter and are given a chance to observe them.

WORKING AS ONE,

Explaining her algebra homework, Nancy Oldfield works slowly and carefully so as not to make a mistake.

WE SOLVED OUR PROBLEMS

Betty Jean Dail briefly studies her shorthand before taking a reading test.

Cope Hiemenz displays some Latin projects which have taken many hours to make.

TOGETHER, WE SHOULDERED

Pat Wilmoth concentrates on the lesson for the day in typing class. In this class one can learn the basic principles of typing and acquire a rapid rate.

Brent Tillman concentrates on what to do about his next drafting problem.

P. A. Breeden points out to Rosalie Larrimore the fact that as citizens, we have the right to contracts enforced by law.

OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

WE WERE LEARNING TO

BECOME FUTURE CITIZENS!

Wilma Benton puzzles over a protractor while solving her senior arithmetic problems.

Robert Helmintoller prepares himself for a future vocation by learning to operate the lathe in machine shop.

WE LOOK BACK ON

OUR BUSY SCHOOL LIFE

IT WAS HECTIC, BUT FUN

"'Anchor's Away,' we're sailors," say Margaret Allman and Margaret Cherry as they cut capers in the traditional Mouse Assembly.

"'Seein' double?'" No, just Marlene and Carlene Matthews playing a duet in the assembly.

Jimmy Morgan and Howard Todd present ribbons and membership cards to the mice, as the student body claps their approval.

"Come out and play with me," sing these three little girls, left to right: Helen Estes, Gene Collins, and Bonnie Taylor.

the "Y" — A place of relaxation and fun.

Gee I can't make up my mind.

Lunchtime Special!

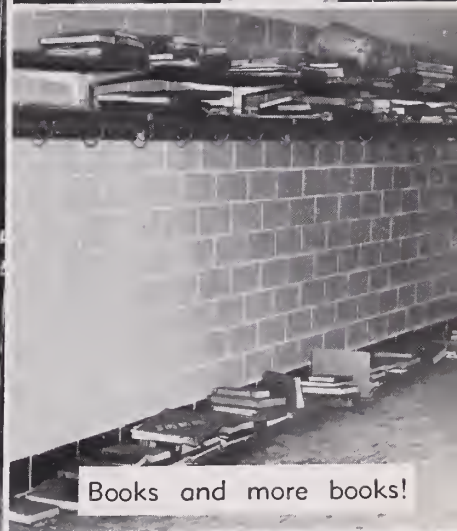

Sitting this one out.

3:15! No more school — 'til tomorrow.

"Goin' steady"

Books and more books!

Santa trips the light fantastic.

Stuart Gardens' Special.

WE WORKED ON MANY PROJECTS

Eileen Rash smiles prettily as she stops to admire a March of Dimes poster. Students give generously to this annual drive.

The Thanksgiving Assembly with its church-like atmosphere created a feeling of meditation and thanksgiving among the students. An Austrian exchange student, Elisabeth Breyer, told the student body the many things Americans should be thankful for.

Letters! Letters! And more letters! Here we have a day on which all students wear letters they have earned in the various activities of the school.

Jimmy Morgan, Chairman of the House and Grounds Committee, presents our new Clean-up Plaque to Lois Anne Bond, seventh grade representative for Homeroom 220.

IN THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Yeordley Fowler, first Diner of the Week, pauses and smiles for the photographer during her lunch hour.

"Are you a friendly Typhoon?" asks Koy Roberts as she pins a heart on Roy Perry.

Judy Slovin, Chairmon of the Behavior Code Committee, and Mr. Plummer, Sponsor of the Honor Council, chot with Pat Helmick, winner of the foll Honor Week Contest.

Solly Scoggin stops to admire the ottroctive bulletin board orranged by the School Spirit Committee.

WE PLANNED VARIOUS

"I can't open my locker," wails "Dimples" Dinwiddie to Bill Martin, our school custodian, who is always willing to help the students.

Mrs. Lucille Williams, our school nurse, examines Lester Terry's sore throat.

Are you an early bird? Well, many students arrive at school long before regular hours, but the maids are always here to accomodate our needs.

ASSEMBLIES AND SCHOOL DANCES

Like a true southern gentleman, "Bo" Roberts assists Sandra Nesbitt at the water fountain.

Mr. Keesee, Assistant Principal, presents Howard Todd with the coveted Julian Gordon Trophy. This award is given yearly to the most valuable player on our football team.

Harold Harpine, Chairman of the Cafeteria Committee, finally completes his colorful display for Red Cross and Community Chest Week. This year these annual drives were united under the slogan, "They March Together."

"Watch your toes," says Jimmy Shires to his favorite gal, Sally Scoggin, as they whirl across the floor at the G.A.A. Christmas dance.

FARMER

SCHOOL LIFE WAS TERRIFIC!

"Just restin'," say Seniors, left to right, Anne Bradshaw, Jo Watson, Annette Damino, and Ruby Johnson as they pause for a moment to rest their weary feet.

Here we find hardworking members of the Beacon and Anchor staff diligently recording the year's events for our school publications.

Exam time! These students are busy boning up for the dreaded "E" Day!

Chow—The happiest time of the day!

n apple for a pretty teacher!

Dig that new auditorium!

...e pause that refreshes!

Safe robbery! — Who dunnit?

...r faithful friend —
Roy

Isn't anyone going to ask us to dance?

What's for lunch
Mrs. White?

WE RECOLLECT OUR

STUDENT COUNCIL—Backbone of our school, the Student Council which is composed of representatives from each homeroom in school, fosters sentiment for law and order, provides opportunities for student cooperation in the internal government of the school, and gives students training for citizenship. This organization, under the sponsorship of Miss Ethel Gildersleeve, promotes many worthy student activities in order to better the conditions of the school. One of the major decisions of the group this year was the addition of the seventh grade to its membership.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS—With the inspiration and guidance of these leaders, we are better able to have a well-run, democratic school. The student body officers are elected by a school-wide election, and they never fail to fill their positions with the utmost efficiency.

First row, left to right: Howard Todd, president; Betty Jeon Doil, secretary; Miss Gildersleeve, adviser. Second row: Stuart Greenspon, treasurer; Jimmy Morgon, vice-president.

STUDENT COUNCIL COMMITTEES — The main functions of the Student Council committees are to promote the many different activities in school and to think of new and unusual ways to present them to the student body.

WE EXPRESSED OUR TALENTS

SENIOR BAND—The Senior Band, under the direction of Mr. Leonard Zimet, is one of the most colorful groups in the school. They supply the peppy and rousing music we hear at our pep assemblies and football games. Participation in the band gives students a chance to have fun with music while learning the fundamentals of group orchestration.

JUNIOR BAND—Consisting of a group of the younger high school students, the Junior Band's main purpose is to further the training of its members towards the Senior Band. This year, under the direction of Mr. Russell S. Girt, they have had a full schedule of activities, which included participation in the All-City Festival and the Peninsula Solo and Ensemble Contest, as well as playing at the J.V. Football games.

HONORS WERE AWARDED US

HONOR COUNCIL—For twenty years, one of the most efficient points of Newport News High School's democratic government has been its honor system. The Honor Council, composed of students nominated by the Executive Board and elected by their classes, acts as a court for cases of cheating and other honor code violations in the school. This group, more than any other organization at Newport News High School, promotes honor and uprightness of character among all the students.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY—Membership in the National Honor Society, strictly an honorary organization, is an exceptional achievement obtained in school. One not only has to be a leader and a person of the finest character, but also a student of high standing. The students in this society strive to develop a higher sense of honor and responsibility in their personal, civic, and school lives.

KEY CLUB EXECUTIVE BOARD—The Key Club, an honorary organization, requires that all of its members, junior and senior boys, have at least a C average. This group is closely associated with the Kiwanis Club. During the year the boys have had various social functions, ushered at numerous football games, and have given out good sportsmanship cords.

FOR OUR ACTIVE PARTICIPATION

LATIN CLUB EXECUTIVE BOARD—The S. P. Q. R. Latin Club, a social as well as cultural organization, does much to help the students become better acquainted with the history and contributions of the Roman race. An out-of-doors supper with the installation of officers, the Saturnalia and Christmas programs, and the Roman banquet, an initiation of new members, were only a few of the activities of the club this year. Here we see the Executive Board centered around Nancy Shaw as she displays a typical costume of this ancient civilization.

First row, left to right: Kitty Hawley, Gail Marrian, Marian Timberlake, corresponding secretary; Bette Lee Heath, Jane Haffman, recording secretary; Sandra Sherman, Harald Harpine, president. Second row, left to right: Miss Free, spansar; Parter Phillips, Sally Macfarlane, Joanne Beecraft, Wilsan Hawk, treasurer; Nancy Shaw, Patricia Wilmath, Carol Warnam, vice-president; Shirley Allen, Evalane Green, Bayard Tysar.

FRENCH CLUB EXECUTIVE BOARD—Pictured here, the Executive Board of the French Club is taking time off from some of their many activities to sing some French songs. This club helps to familiarize students with the French way of life and the French language. Through activities such as the Moulin Rouge, the members gain a better understanding of the customs of the people while being surrounded by a French atmosphere. Membership in Le Cercle Francais, as it is called, is open to any student now taking French or to any former French student.

SCIENCE CLUB EXECUTIVE BOARD—Shown here, the Executive Board of the Science Club is examining the different projects of the members. Participation in local and state science fairs and in field trips are only two of the activities which foster and encourage an interest in this field.

WE WERE GIVEN EXPERIENCE

FUTURE TEACHERS EXECUTIVE BOARD—The Future Teachers of America enables students who are interested in the teaching profession to learn more about it. Each year, in order to gain some basic experience in this field, the members visit different elementary schools in this area, observing and then trying out their hand at teaching. Any sophomore, junior, or senior girl who is interested in joining this organization is eligible for membership. Pictured here, the executive board illustrates what they have learned.

FUTURE NURSES EXECUTIVE BOARD—The primary purpose of the Future Nurses of America is to interest girls in the nursing profession and to help them learn what this vocation offers, as well as what it requires. Under the guidance of Mrs. Lucille Williams, the school nurse, this group has made trips to various hospitals, has had instructive talks and lectures, and has also furnished Christmas toys for the children's ward at Riverside Hospital. Shown here in a mock practice session, the girls are gathered around Nancy Howley as Mrs. Williams demonstrates the perfect bedside manner.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS EXECUTIVE BOARD—The Future Homemakers of America strives to help homemaking students grow as members of the home, the school, and the community. This group is made up of those girls interested in more advanced phases of home management, and who have taken or now take home economics. During the year, this organization has participated in a Mother-Father-Daughter Bonquet, has done volunteer work at the Girls' Club, and has given toys to the children at the Weaver Orphanage.

FOR OUR FUTURE WORK

STAGE CREW—One of the major groups that works behind the scenes during all dramatic presentations and concerts is the stage crew. These hard-working boys give much of their time and labor perfecting the conditions which play such an important part in any performance. They are shown here examining the various lighting equipment of the new auditorium, where they spent many hours during the year.

USHER HEADS—The charming young ladies shown here are the Usher Staff Heads, whose main purpose is to usher at all school performances and to serve as a trained group for community activities when needed. Any girl from the ninth grade on who wishes to apply for the staff must send an application to Miss Dorothy Crane, head of the drama department.

THESPIANS—Thespians is a national honorary society for outstanding students in drama. The Newport News High School's chapter is the oldest one in the state, and only those drama enthusiasts who have done exceptional work in plays, on the staffs, and in any other phase of this field, merit membership. Here we see the members inspecting the stage of our new auditorium, where they have carried on much of their work during the year.

SPEECH ARTS CLUB EXECUTIVE BOARD—A recent addition to N. N. H. S., the Speech Arts Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. LaPides, promotes a greater interest in better speech habits, provides opportunities for speech activities outside of school, organizes and maintains an N. N. H. S. Speakers' Bureau, and functions as a service club, aiding all school and Student Council activities and projects.

DRAMA STAFF HEADS—The familiar expression, "A play is only as good as its players," is not entirely true at Newport News High. Due to the tireless efforts of our drama staffs, headed by the people pictured above, every performance put on is a huge success.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS: The library assistants, junior and senior girls chosen on the basis of their grades and their personalities, aid in the routine operation of the library, such as checking books in and out, assisting with reference typing, preparing catalogue cards for new books, and shelving books. Primarily, the club is a social organization. They have had numerous picnics and parties and an annual banquet.

OPPORTUNITIES WERE UNLIMITED

SENIOR CHORUS—Representing Newport News High School in assemblies, concerts, P.T.A. meetings, and local civic organizations, are the members of the Senior Chorus, who do an enthusiastic job with their musical talent. Under the leadership of Mr. George Marenchin, these students have participated in the Thanksgiving and Christmas assemblies, dedication of the new auditorium, and the yearly Starlight of '56.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS—

Through the untiring efforts of our Varsity Cheerleaders, the student body is able to let our teams know we are behind them all the way. This enthusiastic group does more than their share in encouraging school spirit in the athletic activities, for they plan all pep assemblies, lead cheers at football and basketball games, and are constantly formulating new and different ideas to rouse school spirit.

JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS—A miniature version of the Varsity group, the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders also do their part in encouraging school spirit, not only at Junior Varsity games, but also at the pep rallies. A cute and lively group of girls, they spend many hours working on unusual songs and skits to present to the student body.

VARSITY FLAGTWIRLERS—Adding much color and highlight to all our football games, as well as many of the pep assemblies, the Varsity Flagtwirlers execute original and varied routines both on the field and in the school. During the year they have ably assisted the Senior Band in putting on all the half-time shows at the football games, and they have also performed with them in the Band Concert.

JUNIOR VARSITY FLAGTWIRLERS—The Junior Varsity Flagtwirlers, a group of high-stepping strutters, have put forth much time and effort in order to make the assemblies and J. V. Football games more lively. This year they have really shown a great deal of enthusiasm and have come up with many unusual and colorful skits. These girls, as well as the Varsity Flagtwirlers, are chosen by Mr. Zimet and the former flagtwirlers.

ANCHOR—The Anchor is Newport News High School's annual publication which presents a clear picture of the past year's activities and events to the high school students. Members of the Anchor staff contribute much time and effort in preparing a successful yearbook. The staff strives to make the book one that will bring back pleasant memories in the years to come.

BEACON—The Beacon, the Newport News High School student newspaper, keeps everyone well-informed on the latest activities and events here at school. Its staff consists of students who have had at least one semester of journalism and who have been recommended by Mr. John Huller, the adviser. All those connected with the paper this year are especially proud of its having received top rating at the Columbia Scholastic Press Convention which was held in New York in October.

When the Blue and Gold Typhoons took to the grid-iron early in September, they were successful in capturing their first victory of the year. The next week the team traveled to Princess Ann and were defeated 13 to 0.

Playing host to E. C. Glass of Lynchburg, the Typhoons were again upset. The game with Maury High was probably one of the most thrilling and exciting games of our season's record, but even though our boys were at their best, luck was not with them; the Typhoons lost 20 to 14. After losing to Wilson, Warwick, Norview, and Granby, the Typhoons regained the "old spark" and trampled over Cradock 33 to 6. With renewed hope and spirit, everyone waited for the annual Turkey Day Game with Hampton. The team played with great effort, but again luck was against them, and they bowed to the Crabbers 39 to 20. Even though our football team was not always a winning one, the Newport News High School students showed their appreciation of the team's efforts by the undying school spirit, which lasted throughout the entire season.

BASKETBALL WAS SENSATIONAL

Ellis, guard; P. A. Breeden, forward; Captain Slade Dunn, center; Bucky Keller, forward; and Freddie McDowell, guard.

BASKETBALL HI-LIGHTS

The five "Whiz Kids" of Coach Bill Chambers's Golden Typhaan climaxed one of the most successful basketball seasons in the history of Newport News High School. The "Whiz Kids" compiled an astonishing 25-1 record.

The Typhaan Basketeers started off their season with five consecutive wins, and then suffered their only loss to Wilson, at which time Slade Dunn was sidelined with an appendectomy. After suffering their only loss, the Typhaan roared back to win their next twenty games in a row. This is one of the longest winning streaks in Typhaan history. The five "Whiz Kids" proved they were true champions by winning the Eastern District Championship, the Eastern District Tournament, and the Group One Championship. Ours is the first team in history to win all three events.

The "Whiz Kids" were paced by Captain Slade Dunn, Bucky Keller, P. A. Breeden, Freddie McDowell, and Nelson Ellis. The team had everything. The rebounding of Dunn, Breeden, and Keller; the shooting of Keller, Dunn, Breeden, and McDowell; and the floormanship of McDowell and Ellis were the ingredients of the championship team.

This was Mr. Chambers's second year as our coach, and he has proven to be one of the master basketball strategists in Virginia. Last season he coached NNHS to a second place finish in the Eastern District, and this year he molded a championship team. In his two years at Newport News High School, Coach Chambers has a 42-6 record.

Another big factor in the success of the team this year was the capable work of reserves Jack Tesh, Billy Bradley, Howard Tadd, and Bobby Jones. Kenny Roberts, Billy Queensberry, Phil Collins, and Jimmy Shires also played a big part in the team's success. Newport News will lose the services of Slade Dunn, P. A. Breeden, Nelson Ellis, and Freddie McDowell through graduation this June.

The Typhaan players received many honors. Bucky Keller made the All-Eastern Team. Slade Dunn and Bucky were picked on the first team of the All-Tournament Team, while Freddie McDowell made the second team of the All-Tournament Team. Slade Dunn was awarded the Agathan trophy as the outstanding basketball player on the team, and the entire squad received the Penn Williams trophy for the best defensive player. It was felt by the coaches that since all five players, Dunn, Keller, McDowell, Breeden, and Ellis, had done such an outstanding defensive job all year, that the trophy should be awarded to the entire team instead of one player. The team was honored by being given State Championship letters and jackets by the school.

JUNIOR HIGHLIGHTS

From these two teams, the Varsity Squad will have to find replacements for graduating players. Coach J. C. Range and Coach Pete Robinson have worked long and hard to teach these boys the fundamentals of basketball, and to prepare them for Varsity experience. Both teams had fine seasons, and big things can be expected from them when they reach the Varsity.

DIAMOND REVIEW

As the 1956 Anchor went to press, the baseball season was just getting underway. This year's squad was composed mostly of sophomores and juniors. Head Coach Jack Powers and Assistant Coach Pete Robinson were faced with the task of molding together a baseball team composed mostly of inexperienced boys. From the early season work-outs, it looked as if Newport News High School had good talent on hand, and as if they were going to have a successful season. As each game went by, the boys improved on their hitting and on the fundamentals of baseball.

CINDER TRAIL

The Newport News High School Track Team, one of the State's perennial track powers, was faced with the task of being rebuilt from only three lettermen — Jahn timer Adams, Gene Stanfield, and Jimmy Margan. Missing from the team this year was Jimmy Starbaard, one of the nation's top scholastic hurdlers. A great lass this year also were distance runner, Phil Clark, and weightman, Jimmy McShane.

Coaches Lau Plummer and Julie Cann had to replace them with Jahn timer Adams, Jerry Saunders, Skippy Weitz, David Wittan, Harvey Weinstein, Frank Jordan, Gene Stanfield, David Peltz, Jimmy Margan, and Jerry Gragan.

As the 1956 ANCHOR was going to press, the track squad was preparing to defend its championship in the Tidewater and Eastern District Meets. The coaches hoped to come up with a formidable squad from its many fine, but inexperienced prospects.

THE BOYS' STAMINA AND

Johnnie Adams listens closely for the sound of the gun, which means the race has started!

It was a long run, but Harvey Weinstein does this daily while working out with the team.

ENDURANCE WAS AMAZING

Jerry Saunders and Skippy Weitz take a practice run over the high hurdles.

Jerry Grogan takes a flying leap while practicing his broad jumping.

Jo Ann Cooper, left, and Carolyn Simpson, right, perform one of the many stunts that the Apparatus Club does at their regular weekly meetings. They are, front row, left to right: R. Phillips, C. Rawls, G. Tart. Second row, left to right: S. Nesbitt, C. Jones, J. Tesh, and F. Merritt. Standing, left to right, are: B. Wolf, M. Berzins, P. Richards, M. Edwards, C. Campbell, and V. Hartsell.

The 11th and 12th grade basketball teams take time out during practice to pose for our photographer. They are, front row, left to right: D. Stanley, F. Smith, P. Hill, M. Berzins, S. Marks, B. Castle, and E. Meena. Standing, left to right, are: L. Powell, F. Allred, S. Duell, A. Hanrahan, J. Walters, M. Elmore, G. Gaskins, and K. Hawley.

REALLY WELL-ROUNDED!

WE FONDLY LOOK BACK ON OUR

FINAL YEAR...WE WERE SENIORS

THE OFFICERS AND

The hard-working Senior Class Officers are, left to right: Jimmy Morgan, Vice-President; Dennis Ilish, President; Wirtley Raine, Treasurer; and Gaye Hogge, Secretary.

COMMITTEES WORKED HARD

IN PLANNING OUR PROGRAM

MISS WILMA ANN SALMON

To the Class of 1956 —

I have been at Newport News High School only a short time and although there are some of you I have not met personally, I wish to express my thanks to all of you for allowing me the privilege of being a sponsor of your class. I am not in a position to pass on the wisdoms of a more experienced teacher, but from my own thoughts and experiences, I would like to give you my ideas on how to have a successful life.

The Class of 1956 has been noteworthy for its spirit and leadership throughout the past four years. As you start your future, carry on this spirit and always try to excel in all your undertakings, whether they be academic or otherwise. Strive to do your best, work hard, and aspire to the highest purposes.

May your life be full of happiness and success and may the lasting friendliness of your high school abide with you through the years.

Sincerely,
WILLIAM CHAMBERS

It is with a proud and grateful heart, that I salute you, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-six.

I am proud of my association with you and grateful for the privilege of serving as your sponsor.

As you place first emphasis upon making a life rather than making a living, it is my earnest prayer that each of you will acquire that depth of perception, that true sense of values that will assure your continued growth, "in favor with God and man." May your commencement be the opening of life's door to greater happiness and success.

Sincerely,
WILMA A. SALMON

Kecoughtan Road
at Wythe Center

More than fifty years have passed since the inevitable step was taken which transferred a sprawling tidewater village into the dignified status of a city of the first class in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Its past has been illustrious. But our justified pride in past accomplishments must not dim our eyes to the fact there is much left to do in the future.

A CREED FOR AMERICAN YOUTH

I resolve to let no time or opportunities slip unused by me; that in small things I will strive to do the best that I can in order that the big opportunities of the future will find me qualified. I realize that my future is an enlargement of the present. What I do in my high school years will make me stronger in character that I may help to make a stronger America.

the girl who wants an interesting job

You'll find it at the telephone company, where there's a variety of fascinating jobs for alert, capable young women who qualify.

You'll work in pleasant surroundings with many people about your own age... receive good pay while learning... get regular raises. And you don't need any experience.

Best of all, a telephone job is a satisfying job because you know you're helping almost everyone in your community. Why not find out more about the advantages of telephone work?

Best of luck

Jack
Barber

I have enjoyed much in being with you in my classes and working with you about Test and seeing a resulting good grade the majority of the time. I hope to be in your classes next ^{year} and hope you will think and decide to take music next year to learn much musical knowledge which everyone should have and know.

I've enjoyed seeing you in the two plays this year and hope you much success in Drama.
(Happy Birthday on July 6

Lots of Luck to a swell guy,

Dickie Apperson

Lots of Luck to a swell guy. I hope you will be successful in the
and I'll be in your in the end of the last play.
Remember
William Apperson

Howard,

I enjoyed working with you in the spring play and on the effects staff. I know we will have fun next year as heads of effects and as directors in the Contest plays. I am glad we were in our classes this year and hope I can say the same next.

Best wishes and lots of luck to a swell friend and actor.

Your "hammy" friend,

Russell Parsons

P.S. I still like Miss Gray and I hope you have fun this summer.

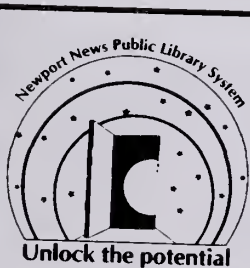

R. P.
